

There are very few radio stations that play Christian wholesome music and entertainment, KLOVE meets that need. It is important to use translators to continue offering this much needed service to the community. Please don't allow the LPFM stations to supersede this important part of our society. Thank you!